NEWSLETTER - DECEMBER 2006

Ann Colbert Wade, Editor

REGIONAL CONVENTION IN 2011

After much discussion following the November anthem reading session, the group voted to continue the process of hosting the Region V convention in 2011. The Lexington and Southern Indiana Chapters have indicated an interest in being involved as well. This is a BIG undertaking, and all hands (and feet and brains, etc.) will be needed to pull it off, so please volunteer to help by contacting any officer or Executive Committee member, and give serious consideration to saying YES if asked.

JANUARY 13 – PEDALS, PIPES AND PIZZA

Our popular program which introduces the pipe organ to young people, Pedals, Pipes and Pizza is coming on Saturday, January 13. This year's edition, which runs from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. will be hosted by St. Paul United Methodist and Douglass Boulevard Christian Churches, across the street from each other at Douglass Boulevard and Bardstown Road. If you know older elementary, middle or high school students who might be interested, be sure and ask them to save that morning. The application will be included in the next Newsletter.

THANKS

A big thank you to Tom Goetz for our November anthem reading session. We had some interesting and useful works to add to our music libraries. There was also a packet of free anthems provided by Morningstar Music Publishers and Paraclete Press. In addition, there was a very nice spread of refreshments done by Rebecca Thompson and Tom. Bravo to both of them for the great food.

Oops! The last Newsletter inadvertently omitted the name of Danny Payne, who performed a neat improvisation titled The Haunted House. Thanks, Danny!
